Two Selectmen, Robert Pike and Ronald Outhouse, and three Planning Board members, Howard Carr, Raymond Estabrook and ~~Howard~~ ^{Bradley} Perkins, met this evening at the Town Hall. Norman Scott does not ^{want} to remain on the board as a regular member but will stay on as an alternate. Raymond Estabrook was designated as a regular member and asked to be chairman as Bradley Perkins wished to step down. One more regular member is needed and the following names were listed to be ^{presented} ~~acted~~ ^{then applied} upon by the selectmen for William Lupin, Garfield Lane, & John Palmer. ^{It was also mentioned that} Stephen DiBiase had shown interest in being on the Planning Board. The first and third Thursdays were suggested by the new chairman as permanent meeting nights.

The map of the proposed York-Cumberland Cty. Housing Authority development was studied and it was decided that ~~allowing~~ in accordance with the new existant

Building Code one of the lots didn't meet the frontage requirements and would have to be eliminated.

Bradley Perkins plans to check with one of the campus connections with the M.M.A. to get his views on this matter.
