

The first official meeting of the Cornish Planning Board took place July 20, 1971 at the New Lucien Hotel.

Members making up the board are Charles Brocken, Donald Jack, Norman Scott Ray Wallace and Brodly Perkins.

Ray Wallace accepted the chairmanship and appointed Brodly Perkins recording secretary.

Business of the evening included the designiation of the third Tuesday of every month as a regular meeting date.
Discussion was held concerning the selection of alternate members to the planning board.
It was decided to continue the discussion at the August meeting and A. B. Peunison was to be asked. Donald Jack announced that Myron Lamb of the York County Regional Planning Board would speak at our August meeting.

The motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Norman Scott and seconded by Donald Jack.

Respectfully submitted
Brodly Perkins
Recording Secretary.
