7. Recieved a draft of the Lease for the Foresters House on RT 5 The rent is to be $1.00 a year plus Liability Ins. and Maintainance Carlton has one consern-they request that we give the Forest Ranger a key in order that he can use the rest room. Carlton will see about getting a key to the building so they can look at it. Table untill they can do so.

8. Willard Champion came in - question on the valuation of his property it went from 16,000 to 38,000. last yesr the Selectmen suggested he place his land in tree growth to reduce the cost of his taxes. He filled out the form he was given and had it back by April 1, 1992. The State came out with a new form which he recieved in September of 92, he was also supposed to have a Forest Ranger walk the property and fill out part of the form, Willard states that he didn't know about the Forester needing to walk the property Willard also states that he didn't know that if he had the correct form filled out and the ranger walk his property he could have been able to have his taxes abated. Vinal remembers telling Willard about the Forester. The Selectmen will discuss this matter at the end of the meeting. no promises on what they can do. Willard should get the proper form filled out and have the forester walk his property as soon as posible.

9. Cornish still owes $6,000.00 for the new rescue unit does the Town want to pay the full $6,000 this year or pay $3,000 this yr and $3,000 plus interest next yr. The rescue is also requesting $7,500 for this years appropriation.
