

SELECTMEN'S MEETING
OCTOBER 18, 2000

The meeting was attended by Carlton Candage, Vinal Pendexter, and John Palmer.

Ron Othuse was here to invite the Selectmen to a table top training exercise on Oct 28th. They need a Selectmen to help coordinate evacuation procedures in case of a major disaster. Carlton and Vinal have previous commitments, and John will check his calendar.

Bob Gingras from Parker Appraisal Co. was here to explain his procedure and ending results.

George Carroll with Tony and Aaron came in to discuss open space tax discount. They wanted to base the discount on the Tree Growth Tax Law. The law seems to be contradictory. The Selectmen will get law clarification and get in touch with Mr. Carroll as soon as possible.

The minutes from the last meeting was signed.

The warrants were signed. There was a question on the charges from Ken Ridsdale. The price per mile was wrong and a new check was issued on 10/20/00.

The Gerry,s from Limerick called Carlton. They were working on the snowmobile trails and were stopped at Piccininni's gate and not allowed through.

A concealed weapon permit application was sent back because applicant is not a town resident.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30
