

OFFICE OF SELECTMEN, ASSESSORS AND
OVERSEERS OF THE POOR

Town of
CORNISH, MAINE

MINUTES OF SELECTMEN'S MEETING
DECEMBER 7, 1994

Present: Carlton Candage, Vinal Pendexter, and Darrell Watson

1. Called to order at 7:00.
2. liqueur license to be signed for the Cornish Inn and was.
3. Amber Carr came in discussed her septic problem. The State sent her a letter saying that her holding tank would be o.k. temporarily, until she could get on the new sewer system, about 18 months. Vinal will call James Foley and get a copy of the letter and then get back to her.
4. Little River Group - they are purchasing a building in Town and would like to set up a payment plan for the back taxes instead of paying it at the time of closing. They propose to pay it off over a four year period and pay approximately $200.00 a month, and keep the current taxes up to date. The Selectmen will recommend it to Charlene, she has to indoors it and will draft a document.
The holding tank for this building doesn't work, the Selectmen have presented it and it is being looked at by the sewer project people
5. Liqueur License to be signed and was for The Tavern at Heritage Place.
