

Sept. 27, 1977

Regular meeting of selectmen on this date all members present.

Diana Huot, a representative of the York-Cumberland Housing Advisory Committee, explained the 202 Program designed to provide construction and financing to build non-profit housing for the elderly and handicapped. More information will be available after the application is accepted by HUD's Washington office. Slides of several housing units in this area were shown.