

SELECTMEN'S MEETING
SEPTEMBER 4, 2002

The minutes from the last meeting were signed. The accounts payable and the payroll warrant were signed.

Carlton received a call about "stump dumps" behind the Business Park and at the recycling bins. Carlton checked them out. Vinal said that Bobby ~~Libby~~ grinds them.

Responses were received for the Cornish Fairground Advisory Committee. <sup>Sturgeon</sup> Linwood Perkins wants to be an alternate, and Bob Mesereau wants to have Linwood's position. Judy Leonhardt and Peggi Aspinall want to remain where they are. Carlton will ask Frank Smith to extend the application deadline for two more weeks to see if they can find someone new.

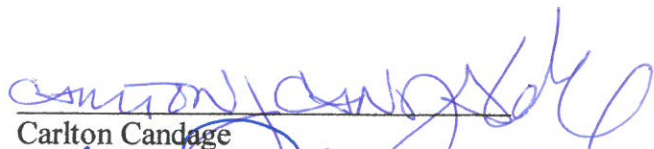

Rob Millard went down to talk to Geneva Jordan about her fence and Diane Day called Carlton to find out what to do about it. Carlton told her to write an account of how the fence came to be on the property line and he will forward a copy to Christine Day's lawyer.

Vinal brought in a reassessment of Gary Hamelin's house. Carlton will adjust the tax bill.

Vinal talked to David Brandt about the corn shop situation. Vinal wants a structural report from an engineer, an environmental assessment, and proof of financial capability. Mr. Brandt will check on legalities. Rob will be told the building permit will be held for another week pending legal clarification.

Carlton and John will work on tax adjustments on Thursday.

Carlton will try to schedule a meeting with John of New England Tool. He will be asked to come to a Selectmen's meeting or he will schedule a meeting for a time when Vinal and John can be present.
